

Koi
Pasadena Craftsman Tile

Cha-Rie Tang, owner and founder of Pasadena Craftsman Tile, started making tiles after the 'tech bubble' burst in the 1980's. As a skilled artisan, her desire was to create hand made art that lasts. She is steeped in the Arts and Crafts tradition and has one of the largest collections of second generation Ernest Batchelder tile molds. Cha-Rie specializes in custom carvings for murals, fireplaces, and kitchen back-splashes.

Contact Information: E-mail: crt@directimagination.com Phone: 626-938-387
Fax: 626-449-6083 Website: <http://www.pasadenacraftsmantile.com>
and http://www.flickr.com/photos/charietang_artist

Koi

Offered in support of Tile Heritage Foundation Programs

Purchase from the THF Online Store

(use your back button or return to the website -- this is a PDF only)

Description: The Koi is a traditional Japanese design. The original tile was hand carved in clay and a mold created from the carving in order to strike multiple copies of the original tile. The glaze is monochromatic and the tile was fired to cone 4 in an electric kiln.

Size: 12 x 12 inches by 1/2 inch thick

Shipping weight: 7.6 lbs, Price: $300.

Purchase from Tile Heritage Foundation Online Store: www.tileheritage.org

(use your back button or return to the website -- this is a PDF only)